U.F.A. Convention AT Calgary

The U.F. convention at Calgary has been the outstanding event of the past week, and its proceedings have been watched with greatest interest by all. President Wood, assisted by Robt Gardiner, M.P., E. J. Garland, M.P., and S. S. Sears filled the chair. Over 1000 delegates were present, and nearly 200 resolutions on the program.

Big Increase In Membership

Secretary Higginbotham reported that the membership stood at $8000, as compared with 30760 a year ago.

Possibly the most tense moment of the convention was when by an overwhelming majority the convention found R.Rice Sheppard guilty of disloyalty and recalled him from office.

It is impossible within the limits of the space at our disposal to give anything like a complete outline of the many varied resolutions. They ranged all the way from the abolition of the office of lieutenant-governor down through all the public problems to the most simple requirements.

Favors Wheat Board

Amongst these were some of outstanding importance, predominate among these were the questions of wheat marketing and the cattle trade. With a large majority the delegates carried a resolution calling for the reinstatement of the Canada Wheat Board to handle the crop of 1922, and until normal conditions are restored.

Expect Embargo Lifted

The chilled beef trade with the old country found its advocates, but did not receive hearty endorsement, it being thought that the embargo would be lifted at an early date which would mean that the Canadian producers would be able to get $20 per head more for his animals.

With a burst of cheering the delegates carried a resolution calling upon the Alberta government to take steps to organize a provincial bank.

BANK RESOLUTION AS APPROVED BY U F A CONVENTION

The resolution calling for the establishment of a provincial government bank reads as follows:

1. That the Alberta government cause to be secured a bank charter in accordance with the Federal Bank act.
2. Head office of such bank being at Calgary.
3. Government purchase and retain capital stock in the said bank to the amount of not less than 55 per cent. or more than 95 per cent.
4. That not less than 6 per cent. or more than 45 per cent be sold to residents in a prescribed area in which the purposed branch is to be located.
5. That the government appoint a commission composed of five members who will exercise all the rights and privileges on behalf of the government granted to the shareholders under the Federal Bank act.
6. That the commission shall have power to exercise all the privileges granted or imposed by the Federal Bank and subject to the direction of the government.
7. That such bank when established shall do a general banking business and proceed to take full advantage of its right to issue paper currency under the Federal Bank act.

BATTLE RIVER REPORT

I have much pleasure in submitting my fifth report on the organization work of the U.F.A. in the Battle River constituency, reported Director H. E. Spencer.

On looking back to the first year of my directorship, I cannot help but realize the more efficient organization we have today in comparison with the earlier years. Then the director was solely responsible for organization in an embarrassingly large territory. Today, with the farmers taking provincial as well as federal political action, I feel that his responsibility is shared by the officials of both political organizations. It has been my endeavor during the past year to work out series of meetings with the help of the federal political directors in each of their respective territories. This plan has worked well and I strongly suggest it be followed in future years.

As the provincial and federal campaigns have been staged during the summer and fall, most of the U.F.A. work was carried out in the spring of this year. During that time 56 locals were visited and organization work encouraged. Seventy days were spent in organization work and board meetings entailing journeys totalling over 2800 miles, nearly 6 of which were covered by team.

During the year 38 new locals have been formed. The district north of the Saskatchewan river has taken a good deal of my attention, as that territory up to a few years ago entirely lacked organization. I am glad to say, however, that we now have some 21 locals there, and that the organization in that part of the country is in a healthy state.

Election Triumphs

During the provincial election in July our members put forward such efforts that six men were elected to the Alberta legislature, and of the seven who opposed them, six lost their deposits. At the federal election your candidate was successful with a very large majority, the two opponents losing their deposits.

Though our members are distinctly in earnest (which is proved by their efforts in both elections this year), there has been a falling off in many districts in the local activities. This state of things is attributed to the chasing of the elusive dollar to meet their indebtedness. The financial stringency has left its mark on the dispositions of our rural people. All our community enterprises, cooperative societies, etc., are affected by the shortage of money.

The U.F.W.A. is not developing as rapidly as one would wish, the main reasons being the indifference of public questions, scarcity of money, isolation and difficulty in taking children out, and other women's organizations filling the social need. There is great room for development of the junior section of the movement: the future of the organization rests with the juniors.

The effect of the 1920 fall drive on the 1921 membership was good in new districts; in many of the old districts fees were not collected in advance. Some local membership drives have been put on this year with fair success.

The prospects for the coming year are good; every effort should be made to keep locals active. Better coordination between the educational and political forces should be worked for. Many think that the Presidents of the provincial political associations should act as directors on the federal constituency board.

As my responsibility as federal member will necessitate my severing my connection as U.F.A. director, and this being therefore my last report, I beg to take the opportunity of acknowledging the many kindnesses shown, and the hospitality extended to me by the various U.F.A. and U.F.W.A. members in this constituency. I would also like to express my appreciation of the welcome assistance always rendered by central office.

Want U F A Publication

Considerable discussion was given to the press and to the question of organizing a farmers newspaper. The daily press was scored for its hostile attitude in the recent elections, which had been won despite their opposition. The Grain Growers was also criticized as never having given the Alberta farmers its support. It was thought that the monthly publication of a four-page bulletin would be most advantageous the cost to be covered from the increased membership fees.

Merging the political organization received support, but it was decided to leave the matter for one more year before making and change.

Provincial legislature to provide for the recall of municipal councillors will be asked for.

The liquor question was the subject of a heated debate for over two hours. It was decided to give support to the government in enforcing the Liquor Act.

Hearty support was given to resolution favoring the granting of natural resources to the province.

It was decided that the period of redemption of lands sold for taxes should be extended from one year to three years.

Edgerton Elevator And Coal Bins Are Burned To Ground

The villagers were aroused from their slumbers about 12 p.m. on Wednesday night by a cry of fire and the gong of the fire engine. The Farmers' elevator was in flames and the roar could be heard clear up town, rushed to the scene but was

The new fire engine was at once rushed to the scene but was unable to afford resistance to the fire in the main building, but managed to save the office, and all that remains is a smouldering mass of grain. About 12 cardloads of grain were in storage. An engine was at once rushed from Wainwright to remove several empty and loaded cars.

The origin of the fire is a complete mystery, but supposedly combustion or over-heated machinery was to blame. The loss at writing is unestimated but undoubtedly covered by insurance.

Chauvin Agricultural Plan To Improve The Annual Fair Prize List

The Chauvin Agricultural Society held its monthly meeting on Saturday, President, Norman Strachan presiding. A lengthy discussion of the prize list for the August fair, resulted in a decision to send a copy of the 1921 fair list to each director with the request that they make any improvement that they think would help the fair, and present them to the society at the next meeting. The feeling of the society was that in this way, by judicious sifting, some new and profitable ideas might be advanced in time for the printing of the 1922 list. It was also arranged to have each director responsible for the selling of at least one book of membership tickets, the director who sells most to be rewarded suitably.

Secretary Perry announced that the society had decided to exhibit at the provincial seed fair to be held in Edmonton February 13th and that all farmers who proposed sending an exhibit were to leave it with E. A. Keith, at his office.

U.F.W.A. Convention At Calgary

The U.F.W.A. convention decided that no government assistance should be sought to aid it in its work.

Mrs. R. B. Gunn, of Paradise Valley, was elected chairman of the U.F.W.A. convention, with Mrs. L. C. McKinney, of Claresholm, Mrs. B. F. Kiser, High River; and Mrs. Winnifred Ross, of Millet, to relieve her.

The interest of family health and welfare received two hours of earnest consideration, and many viewpoints were expressed. It was conceded that every thing that tended for healthier children and better babies was highly to be desired. Amendments in the Mothers Act were foreshadowed by Hon H. E.

Support of the government in the strongly urged. It being pointed out that if we permit one law to become a joke we will soon have a lawless community.

Charged With Theft

Carl Heonecke was on Thursday last committed to Prince Albert gaol by Jas. W. Coe, J.P. to await trial on the charge of stealing wheat.

Sherlock Lake School Meeting

The Annual meeting of the above S.D. was held at the home of W. Harvey Smith on Friday last. The prospect of a greatly increased school rate was apparent from the outset, and it was decided to call for tenders for the conveyance of the larger portion of the children to Stanmore school. A decision was also arrived at that if at the end of the first school term the cost of conveying the children approached the cost of operating a school, the trustees should call a meeting of the ratepayers and discuss the advisability of building a school for this district. Allan Marshall was elected trustee by acclamation, everyone else who was approached declining nomination.

Thanks are due to Mr. and Mrs. Smith for their kindness in providing lunch for those present.

GREENMEADOWS U.F.A.

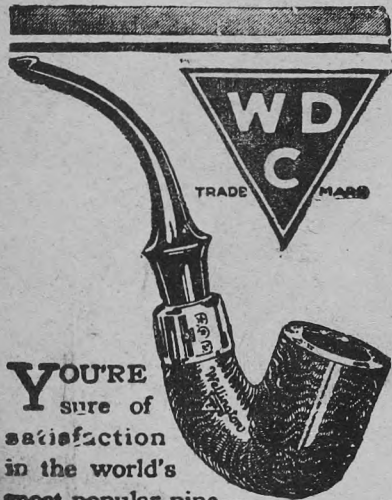

A meeting of the above local will be held in Green Meadow school house on Wednesday the 1st of February at 8 p.m.

After the meeting a social and dance will be held. All members and friends are urged to turn out, as a real good time is assured.

HOW CANADA IS GOVERNED

LEGISLATIVE POWER IN THE PROVINCES

The legislatures of the province are composed of a lieutenant-governor, a legislative council and a legislative assembly in the provinces of Nova Scotia and Quebec; of a lieutenant-governor and a legislative assembly only in the other seven provinces.

In Prince Edward Island, however, there is an assembly elected on a basis different from the other provinces.

The legislative council, elected for many years on a property qualification, was abolished as a separate house in 1893 and united with the assembly. The fifteen constituencies now return each a councillor elected by voters with a real estate qualification, to the value of $325; and a member elected by voters with so small a property qualification that it is practically a manhood suffrage franchise.

(Manhood suffrage franchise means that every man of full age, i.e., over twenty-one years, has the right to vote).

The legislative councillors in Quebec and Nova Scotia are appointed by the lieutenant-governor on the advice of the exclusive council and must have a property qualification. The president, or speaker, is also appointed by the lieutenant-governor in

A property basis still prevails in council and holds office during pleasure. Members of the council retain their positions during life, unless they become bankrupt, convicted of crime, and in Quebec, if they are absent for two seasons consecutively or otherwise disqualified by law.

The council of Quebec consists of twenty-four members: that of Nova Scotia of twenty-one. Their legislative rights are similar to those of the senate of Canada. They can commence or amend all classes of legislation except money or taxation bills. While they may reject such bills as a whole, they cannot amend them.

The legislative assemblies of the provinces are elected by the people on a very liberal franchise—manhood suffrage in Ontario, New Brunswick, and British Columbia.

Prince Edward Island and Quebec.

The number of members varies from one hundred and eleven in Ontario to fifteen in Prince Edward Island.

They are paid a certain compensation during a session, varying from $100 in Quebec to about $160 in Prince Edward Island, with the addition of a small sum, or a mileage rate, ten cents each way in some cases cases to pay travelling expenses.

The elections are held on the same day in the provinces, and the vote is by ballot. The methods of conducting elections, from the time of the dissolution until the return of the writs for a new legislature, are practically the same as those for the dominion parliament. The lieutenant-governor by the advice of his executive council issues a proclamation dissolving the old legislature and appointing the day for the return of the writs, and calling the new legislature together. Returning officers receive the writs and the days for nomination and voting are fixed. Voters mark and deposit their ballots in the same secrecy as at a dominion election.

The provincial laws providing for the independence of the legislature, like those of the Dominion, prevent contractors and persons who receive salaries and emoluments from the dominion or provincial governments from sitting in the assemblies.

The statutes against bribery and corruption are also very strict. In all cases the provincial judges try cases of disputed elections, with the same satisfactory experience that has been the result of a similar system for the dominion controverted elections.

The legislatures have a duration of four years—in Quebec and Nova Scotia, of five—unless sooner dissolved by the lieutenant-governor. They are governed by the same constitutional principles that obtain at Ottawa.

The lieutenant-governor opens and prorogues the assembly, as in Ontario, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Manitoba and British Columbia, or the assembly and the legislative Council in Nova Scotia and Quebec, with the usual formality of a speech.

A speaker is elected by the majority in each assembly, and is appointed by the crown in the upper chamber.

The rules and usages that govern their proceedings are derived from those of England, and do not differ in any material respect from the procedure in the dominion parliament. The rules with respect to private bill legislation are also similar.

The British North America Act requires that the legislatures of Ontario and Quebec must sit once in every twelve months, like the dominion parliament, but even without this constitutional direction the fact that supplies for the public service must be voted every year before a fixed day—either the first of July or the first of January in the different provinces—to meet before the expiration of a financial year. If they did not meet to pass a new supply or appropriation bill before the end of that year, the province would be without money to meet the payment of public salaries, and expenditure on public works and other matters of provincial necessity.

Local Seed Exhibits Will Be Shown At Provincial Fair

The Alberta Provincial Seed Fair will be held in Edmonton February 13th to 16th. $200 is offered as prizes to the best all-round exhibits by an Agricultural Society. A liberal list of prizes for wheat, oats, barley; rye; peas; flax; timothy; brome grass seed; rye grass seed; red clover; alsike; alfalfa; corn and potatoes is provided.

30 lbs of wheat; rye of flax constitute an exhibit. For wheat and oat exhibits the province is divided in two zones. Those of our readers living in townships 45 and south thereof compete in zone one; whilst all residing in townships 46 and north thereof must compete in zone two.

Any further information, prize lists and entry forms can be obtained by writing J. D. Smith, Superintendent of Seed and Weed Branch, Department of Agriculture. In this connection we may add that the Chauvin Agricultural Society has decided to compete in the provincial seed fair. A number of the members have signified their intention of sending in exhibits. The directors trust that their number may be very largely increased. Exhibits may be sent in for any of the above named varieties of seed.

The official fair prize list states:—"The above exhibit must be made up by the individual exhibits of farmers competing in any other class and who must state on their entry form the Agricultural Society in which they wish their exhibit to compete. No extra sample or exhibit is needed."

Antitoxin For Diphtheria

The provincial department of health is emphasizing the advisability of the demonstration of antitoxin in cases of diphtheria. Supplies of antitoxin are kept on hand by the provincial department of health at Edmonton and the provincial laboratory. Supplies are also kept by the city health officers of Lethbridge and Calgary. It is also advisable that each municipality keep a small supply on hand. Antitoxin should be administered as quickly as possible in the case of diphtheria. In cases treated within the first twenty-four hours or so, the mortality is practically nil. Every hour's delay lessens the chances of successful treatment. In the case of suspected diphtheria, antitoxin should be given at once.

Cooperation of the general public in precautionary measures against the spread of the disease, should be sought by sanitary inspectors, particularly in the fight against diphtheria. Common drinking cups, chewing gum and such things are responsible for the spread of diphtheria, more than any other agencies, declares one authority.

Wainwright Spiel Should Attract Big Attendance

Valuable Prizes Are Offered
In Five Different Competitions

Wainwright curlers are out to attract the biggest and most enthusiastic bunch of devotees of the 'broom and stone' that have ever gathered in this town for the annual bonspiel to be held Feb. 7, 8, 9. No less than seven fine sheets of the best ice will be in use and it is expected that rinks from all over the province will enter in the five big events which will be staged. These are the Grand Challenge, Edmonton Brewery Cup, Calgary Brewery cup, Visitors cup, Consolation cup, and Grand Aggregate, in all of which there will be first, second third, and fourth prizes.

The piece de resistance of the 'spiel' will no doubt be the Grand Challenge trophy, as in this event there will be two special prizes given. In addition to the usual silverware to the winners of the cup, there will be presented four quarters of buffalo meat, the carcass having been kindly donated by the dominion government, and this prize in itself will without doubt prove a big attraction it being fully expected that several Edmonton and Calgary rinks will vie with many others for the possession of such a coveted reward.

J. L. Gerow of Wainwright, is the secretary of the club, and he will be pleased to forward programs of the bonspiel to all applicants who write him.

"Thirteen" Not So Unlucky After All

A company of the Ribstone curlers journeyed to Edgerton, Friday January 13th. They were undeterred by any legendary superstition attached to the number "thirteen" but is noticeable how that number followed them for the whole of the day.

The first game was played in the afternoon. Edgerton made the unique record of counting seven stones in one end. The game finished in favor of Edgerton by a score of "thirteen" to ten.

It was the intention of the Ribstone boys to return immediately after the game, but the Edgertonians prevailed on them to stop and play another game in the evening. The Ribstone boys consented, and in the later game defeated their hosts by a score of "thirteen" to eight.

Manitou Lake Telephone Company

A directors' meeting was held to consider the tenders received for the position of Central Operator with the result that Mr. J. Proctor was re-appointed at a salary of $125 per month, with the proviso that for every phone taken out during any month he receives $1.50 less. It was decided to levy a call charge of 25c. for non-boxholders, this charge to become operative on February 1st 1922.

Saskatchewan Favors The Wheat Board

Hon. C. M. Hamilton, minister of agriculture, spoke for an hour and a half introducing his resolution on the Saskatchewan Wheat Board. He had, after consulting members of the opposition, amended his resolution by the addition of the following clause: "That this assembly reiterates its opinion that the only system of marketing which will meet the conditions for 1922 is a national system under the control of a wheat board on which the producers are fully represented."

Good luck seems to stumble right onto the hustler.

A THREEFOLD CHARACTER

To view aright the import of the conventions held during the past week in the city of Calgary we must regard that gathering not only as a farmers' gathering, nor as the annual convention of the farmers' organization, but we must take cognizance of that gathering as a meeting of the supporters of the government

THE TIME TOO SHORT

The wide scope of its deliberations covered not only matters relative to the organization of farmers proper, but included their economic questions such as the marketing of their grain and cattle; in addition to all which the policy of the provincial government in a number of matters. There can not be the slightest doubt in the mind of a thoughtful person that the time at their disposal was far too short for the important work before the convention.

TO SIMPLIFY THE WORK

These gatherings are of the greatest importance and value; and are to be encouraged. Doubtless steps will be taken to make these conventions of greater service and efficiency. But just how this will be done is hard to forecast. The urgency of some improvement is easily recognized when a short convention has some resolutions to pass upon, for it is beyond the power of any gathering to deal with fifty a day. Many of these resolutions cover more or less the same ground and duplicate the work of the convention. Doubtless a longer period for convention will become a necessity in future years; and to prepare the ground it may be found advantageous to hold some form of district conventions where the resolutions from that district may be discussed and formulated for the provincial convention.

GIVES DIRECTION TO PARLIAMENT

As the supporters of the Alberta government the delegates have a task of the greatest importance before them. No less a task than the direction of the policy of the provincial government. The power is theirs—and with the power comes the responsibility. Under the Stewart government the expressions of this convention were listened to with careful regard by the provincial legislature; and under the new regime the voice of this convention has even greater weight and authority. In fact, as we have said, it gives direction to the parliament for its next session.

A STEP FORWARD AND A DANGER

Through the past years, we have from time to time expressed editorial regret that there has been so little so little discussion of political questions by the public in general. It is to the credit of the farmers that they have lead the way in overcoming this condition. Or at least so far as their class are concerned. But what are the other forty per cent of the citizens going to do. As Wood says, it is almost impossible for them to organize. They represent, as a matter of fact, over 200 different interests. Of these a large number have interests parallel to the farmers, but the U.F.A., unlike the sister bodies in Saskatchewan and Manitoba, do not welcome such to their midst. The U. F. A. being so careful to preserve itself as a class organization. There is a serious danger of class warfare developing, and that danger will continue until such time as there is an equation of political opportunity to all.

RESENTMENT, OR JUSTICE?

The mistakes of today are breeding places for the trouble of tomorrow. We fear that such a mistake has been made in the Rice Sheppard episode. Whether or not Rice Sheppard was guilty of the charges laid against him, could scarcely have been tried and considered with due care—such care as we would all demand in the courts of justice. It appears that rightly, or wrongly, he was the victim of an outburst of feeling against him and his actions. A careful inquiry might possibly have elucidated evidence to prove that this pioneer member and worker for the U.F.A. was making an honest, if mistaken effort to reconcile the interests of labor and farmer. In any case it would have been consistent with the principles of British justice, and it would have been re-assuring to the official labor party

A BIG TASK GIVEN

The convention of a few days has laid upon the government many tasks—so many in fact, that it will prove absolutely impossible for this or any other government to do them all inside the span of one year. The way has been pointed out, however.

Train Six Miles Long Needed To Haul Grain From District

A loaded freight train four miles long, drawn by a gang of the largest locomotives would be needed to haul the grain from this district, or rather the portion of it that trades through Chauvin Ribstone and Butze. To include the Artland shipment two more miles of cars and several locomotives would have to be added, making the total length well over six miles.

The vision of this enormous train is more than sufficient to surprise us. But even more amazing is the cost of hauling this grain to the elevators.

We may take as our basis of figuring 900 cars of grain of all descriptions, and taking an average of but one thousand bushels to the car, and a moderate estimate of an average cost of hauling at five cents per bushel, we find that it has cost no less than $45,800.00 to haul this crop to the railroad.

Now a large number of our farmers cannot haul for only five cents a bushel, and for them we must boost this allowance higher, say we add but one-third, and we get cost of $60,000.00.

"Gee" says our office boy, "I guess they'll do some more road work after this." "Hush" we reprove "don't you know they've got to keep the taxes down." But seriously it is a big problem, isn't it?

Grain Shipments From Chauvin Show Big Increase

Chauvin district has won second place on the G. T. P. honor roll for the increased amount of grain shipped this season. The first place was won by Vera, Sask., and the third by Irma, Alberta.

The following figures will give a comprehensive view of the increase. We may add that these figures refer to Chauvin alone. Ribstone, Artland etc., all show increases.

1918 crop, Sept 1 to Jan 20 .. 181 cars
1919 crop, Sept 1 to Jan 20 .. 20 cars
1920 crop, Sept 1 to Jan 20 .. 153 cars
1921 crop, Sept 1 to Jan 20 .. 229 cars
Seventy per cent only of the crop has been hauled to the elevators, according to the most careful estimates.

Chauvin G.W.V.A. Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Chauvin G. W. V. A. was held in the I. O. O. F. hall, December 29th.

The chair was taken by president W. Cubitt, and about sixteen members were present. Secretary read the financial statement for the year, which showed to the organization to be in a fair financial condition. The work accomplished during the past year was reviewed, and the reports accepted.

The following officers for 1922 were then elected.—

President: W. J. Cubitt
Vice-President: C. J. Smith
Sec.-Treas: T. H. Saul

Executive committee: E. A. Pitman; J. J. MacKenzie; R. H. Mann; Jeff Swan; K. W. Coe

It was decided to reduce the annual membership fee to two dollars per year, and that this amount should include a paid up subscription to the "Veteran" the official organ of the G. W. V. A..

The Saskatchewan legislature unanimously passed a resolution calling upon the federal authorities for further reductions in the freight rates.

167 TIMES $2 IS $334

Suppose for one moment that you had to sell your crop one bushel at a time. And suppose you had to deliver that bushel in instalments once a week for fifty-two weeks. Do you not think you would not have to go after your collections once in a while. Maybe you'd just hate to. And sometimes may be you'd put it off until you had to. Then you'd want your money.

A local newspaper has to sell itself one copy at a time. It comes to you once every week, or for fifty-two times. Then it must be sold again. Another collection must be made. As $2 is such a small amount, it does not pay to write a number of letters. Again, because we know each other so well, we don't like to stop the paper on you. Neither of us like that. And because money has been so tight we have carried more and more of you.

It has been a pleasure for us to do our best to help tide the strenuous times. But it has got us into a hole. We have to renew all our fire insurance policies (t'is three years since our fire) at a cost of nearly $200. We have not got that money. The bank refuses to accommodate us. And friends we must ask you to rally to our help. You will, we believe, do this because you know that unless our property is protected our credit is destroyed. If we lose our credit our position is without hope.

Now we have accommodated 167 persons at $2.00 each, some of these we are pledged to carry until they get another crop. Many of them have simply just put off until next time they come to town,----and put off again. This 167 means that we are short $334.00.

The prompt payment of your subscription will be of the greatest help to us and will be duly appreciated.

The next issue is our 400th. All whose labels bear the no '400' or lower should renew their subscription at once. (The number on your label indicates the issue up to which your subscription is paid)

Now we thank you in anticipation of your early response.

Yours for the best local paper
LEONARD & ADA D'ALBERTANSON

WE NEED MONEY

Credit To Whom Credit Is Due

(Contributed)

When one considers the difficulties that were placed in the way of the directors of the Manitou Lake Telephone Company, the outcome of their last meeting certainly reflects credit on them. We know how impossible it is for a body of men to please everybody, we also know how hard a task it is to attempt to please some people, but in this instance the directors appeal to the ordinary minded shareholder as being very satisfactory. At the annual meeting recently held it was proposed to levy a 25 cent charge on non-shareholders. When this was put to vote it was practically impossible to know whether it was carried or not, however the proposal was declared defeated. When this matter was before the directors meeting it was decided that, in view of the altered circumstances, to impose this levy and this will become effective from Feb. 1st, next. The Sliding Scale with the central operator also proves that the directors are studying the cost of maintenance, and are keeping it to as low a level as possible, without interfering with efficiency.

It is certainly no joke to be a director of this Company, and take the abuse that was hurled at their heads at the Annual meeting, fortunately by a very small minority, and yet to come forward as they have done, and adopt measures that insure the smooth working of this system, providing they receive the proper and well deserved backing from the phone holders.

TOO FLIGHTY

"I tell you what" said Mrs Umson, "it won't be long before women are in many of the public offices."

"Well" said Umson, in reply, "I don't care so much what they do as long as they keep out of the weather department."

"Why should they keep out of the weather department?"

"The weather is changeable enough now."

A SAD TRUTH

"My good friends," began a temperance orator in an English town, "drink is the curse of the world. All the crimes, all the wars, all the heartaches of the universe can be laid at the door of intoxication."

He paused significantly and gazed around his audience.

"Oh, my friends," he continued at last, "what causes more misery than liquor?"

Not receiving any reply to his query, he repeated the question, adding:

"Can anyone tell me that?"

The silence was broken by the little man at the end of the hall.

"Thir-r-st!" he yelled.

Mother should be willing that little feet should muddy her freshly scrubbed floor if that were any assurance that the same feet when larger would not wander into forbidden paths.

Chauvin Loses

Dawson Cup To Wainwright

On Tuesday January 17th the Wainwright rink was crowded as never before on the occasion of the hockey team having challenged the Chauvin team for possession of the Dawson Cup.

All the contestants were sure out to win, and although the game was pursued right through with vim and ardor, it was a remarkably clean exhibition of hockey, the only fault possibly being too much individuality in the play—little or no combination play being in evidence.

The score of 6-4 in favor of the home team was a fair measure of the play as the team appealed to the writer, and Referee Davidson and JJudge-of-play, Miller being right up to snuff, no phoney work was attempted, although the "dickey-birds" were conspicuous by their scarcity.

The teams lined up as follows:

Wainwright	position	Chauvin
Long	goal	Rutherford
Brunker	r. defence	Stuart
Morrison	l. defence	Pearce
Hodgins		Rodden
Pigeon	forwards	Halland
Greer		Pierce

Substitutes—Wainwright, Tory Mc Kay and Gaudiche; Chauvin—Pierce, Sigurdson and Keatley.

Goals—1st period, Wainwright 3; Chauvin 3; 2nd period, Wainwright 3; Chauvin 1. 3rd period 0-0. Final score—Wainwright 6; Chauvin 4.

After the conclusion of the program the boxes were auctioned by the local auctioneer Mr. Thos Young, who certainly used his vocal organs on behalf of the good things that were in the boxes. Those not bringing boxes were supplied with lunches.

The sum of $36.50 was realized from the sale of lunches and boxes.
